Message from the Editors

This is springtime. As we put aside the COVID-19 rapid antigen kits, we are seeing a surge in respiratory tract infections due to various viruses. There are outbreaks of mild cases in institutions as well as isolated severe cases that require intensive care. As paediatricians, we believe it is our responsibility to educate our children to stay vigilant, practise good personal hygiene and receive immunizations in a timely manner. In this newsletter you will find details of the 2023 Paediatric Update No. 2. Remember to mark your diary!

Announcement from Education Committee

Curriculum Review – Invitation to Forum

The Working Group on Curriculum Review has been updating the proposal for a new curriculum. We would like to invite all fellows, members and associates to a forum on 18 April 2023 (Tuesday) at M Ground Lecture Theatre, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, from 7 pm to 9 pm.

Please come and express your views. For details of the forum and the curriculum proposal, please visit <https://www.hkpaedcr.paediatrician.org.hk>.

eHKAM Registration and HKAM Learning Management System (LMS)

The HKAM has launched the eHKAM registration and the Learning Management System (LMS) in late 2022.

All fellows of the Academy are eligible for an eHKAM ID. The ID allows a fellow to access the LMS, which will be integrated with iCMECPD platform to enhance the convenience of gaining CME credits. Once you have registered for the eHKAM ID and the LMS system, you will receive notification about CME activities, including the Active CME MCQ linked to the HK Journal of Paediatrics and the HK Medical Journal. Please note that the MCQ will migrate from the iCMECPD platform to the LMS in July 2023.

Please do not miss out. Click eHKAM Online Registration Page <http://page.hkam.org.hk/eHKAMReg> to register your eHKAM ID. For more information, please visit the eHKAM webpage <https://www.hkam.org.hk/en/initiative/ehkam>.
