

Document 10

List of Potential Assessors

1. Professor Andrew Bush

Andrew Bush is Professor of Paediatric Respiriology, Imperial College, Academic Director of Paediatrics at the National Heart and Lung Institute, and Honorary Consultant Paediatric Chest Physician at the Royal Brompton Hospital.

<http://www1.imperial.ac.uk/medicine/people/a.bush/>

His experience in subspecialty establishment has been the establishment of paediatric respirology in the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health, and the participation of setting up the Paediatric HERMES within the European Respiratory Society

ShortCV-HK.docx

2. Professor Gerald M. Loughlin

Dr. Loughlin is board certified in both Pediatrics and Pediatric Pulmonary Medicine. He is currently the Nancy C. Paduano Professor and Chairman of the Department of Pediatrics and is a member of the Division of Pulmonology, Allergy & Immunology. In addition, he serves as Senior Associate Dean for International Clinical Program Planning at Weill Cornell Medical College.

<http://weill.cornell.edu/research/researcher/gml2001/biography.html>

His experience in subspecialty establishment is that he was among the first fellows in the Pulmonary Medicine Board and was Board Chairman from 1995-96.

BiosketchHK.docx

CV2010.doc

3. Professor Victor Chernick

Dr. Chernick is Professor Emeritus of the Pediatric Department in the University of Manitoba. He was among the first fellows in Pediatric Pulmonology under the American Board of Pediatrics. He was also a Chairman of the Subspecialty Board. He has had a distinguished career in Pediatric Pulmonology as a clinician, teacher, researcher, writer, and promoter. Currently he is the Chief Editor of Pediatric Pulmonology.

<http://www.jewishfoundation.org/bookoflife3.cfm?id=418>

His experience in subspecialty development is that he was among the first to be certified and he has witnessed its set up in North America in the board sense.

Chernick cv short.doc

4. Professor Peter Sly

Professor Peter Sly is recognized internationally in the area of Children's Environmental Health. He currently directs the WHO Collaborating Centre for Research on Children's Environmental Health, located in Perth; is on the Advisory Board for a long standing WHO – National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences Collaborative Agreement; is the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Pacific Basin Consortium for Environment and Health; and is an advisor to the WHO, Public Health and Environment Section. Professor Peter Sly is a NH&MRC Senior Principal Research Fellow and a paediatric respiratory physician with extensive research experience in respiratory physiology.

<http://www.uq.edu.au/aid/peter-sly>

His experience is vast in the international scene, especially the WHO. He is also involved in the setting up of respiratory training in the Australian College of Paediatrics.